

Sunday, November 8, 2009

Lilly Hall, Butler University

Rehearsal Times/Locations

1:00 - 5:00 pm - room 112: Symphony

1:00 - 3:00 pm - room 177: Philharmonic

3:30 - 5:00 pm - room 177: Concert

Greetings Philharmonic:

Well, here we are - our last rehearsal! Please take every opportunity to practice this week for Sunday.

1-1:20 - Vaughan Williams

1:20 - 1:50 - Wilson

1:50 - Break

2:00 - Beethoven

2:30 - Borodin

(Program order: Beethoven, Vaughan Williams, Borodin, Wilson)

I'll the remainder of the string seating done on Sunday. I may seat your section in a similar manner as the first violins, for which I only set the first five players. The other folks will rotate because, in that case, the recordings of numerous players were VERY similar, and so it didn't seat appropriate to seat everyone in order. Please keep in mind that EVERYONE is equally important in our orchestra -- the chair in which you sit is far less important than your overall contribution to the group :)

See you Sunday!

Dr. S.

Notes for Saturday, November 14:

Dress rehearsal will be 9:00 to 10:25 am at Hilbert Circle Theatre. There will not be a break given as every moment is needed on stage that day! A handout with the full schedule will be available at rehearsal on Sunday and on the website.

Music for All Grand Nationals: Our best wishes go out to those bands participating in the Music for All Grand Nationals November 12 - 14. We know that you've been working hard all season and we hope for the best for you all! That said, the dress rehearsal is our one and only time to rehearse on-stage prior to the concert, and even then for only a limited time. The schedule for the Grand Nationals semi-finals that take place the morning and afternoon of November 14 will not be known until next Friday after the pre-lims are completed - we will be checking for this information to be posted throughout the evening. Due to the last minute nature of that schedule, please begin conversations this week with your band director to arrange to attend as much of dress rehearsal as possible.

Notes for Sunday, November 15:

Concert Attire: This will be outlined on the handout, but to clarify:

Guys: black suit or tux (school orchestra/band uniforms that match this description are fine), black dress shoes, black socks, white button-up shirt, black bow tie

Girls: all black (dress, skirt, slacks, blouse), length of skirts must be past the knees, sleeves no shorter than 3/4 length, black dress shoes, black stockings/socks

New!! Drop off and pick up routines have been changed!

An e-mail earlier in the week outlined the new drop off and pick up routines at Butler University. Please abide by these procedures every week.

Philharmonic Orchestra should be dropped off and picked up at the entrance on the northwest corner of the building. Large instruments: there is a bit of space to the side of the driving lane where cars may pull off out of the way. Please pull out of the way when stopped to unload or load a vehicle.

Deadline Approaching! Philharmonic Concerto Competition (November 15 Application Deadline): New World hosts a concerto competition that is open only to those who are members of the New World Youth Philharmonic Orchestra. This is your chance to compete for the opportunity to be a soloist with the New World Youth Philharmonic Orchestra on the stage of Hilbert Circle Theatre! The application and rules are posted here:<http://www.nwyso.org/YAC.html>. We often have applicants that apply to both the Young Artist (see below) and Philharmonic Concerto Competition, but note that a complete application is due for every competition entered (including recording, entry fee, and application).

Reading this e-mail? Tell us your favorite color at check-in on Sunday. Be proactive, we're not going to ask you for it!

November 15 concert tickets available at www.indianapolissymphony.org - remember that orchestra participants do not need tickets. Seats will be reserved up near the stage for them.

Tickets to Festival of Carols: Tickets to the Festival of Carols may be purchased on-line here: <http://www.indychoir.org/concerts/tickets.html>. Ticket order forms will also be available at rehearsals shortly. The Festival of Carols is our collaborative event with the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir that takes place on December 5 and 6. This concert will feature the New World Youth Symphony Orchestra with the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir performing holiday pieces and includes a sing-a-long! Times and Locations:

December 5, 8:00 pm
Holy Spirit Parish, Geist
December 6, 3:00 pm
Southport Presbyterian Church

Volunteers for the Concert on Sunday, November 15 -

I'm seeking volunteers to assist with certain aspects of the day:

Backstage Help: We always need two or three parents to be backstage, separate from check-in, to help with directing members around the backstage area, and to help out as needed with anything that may come up. Time: 3:45 - 4:55 pm

Set-Up and Tear Down: This involves getting the Concert Orchestra room set-up for rehearsal (time: 2:30 - 3:00 pm), moving merchandise and program books to the lobby (3:00 - 3:30 pm), and removing all of the same materials to the backstage area following the concert. 2 people would be best for this task.

Audience Surveys: We've always taken a laid back approach to our audience surveys. This year, we want to be more proactive, so I'm seeking 8 volunteers to be at the exits to the hall. This is a particularly good way for siblings to be involved!

Note: Call times for the Philharmonic Orchestra is 4:15 pm. Please keep an eye out for adjustments to this schedule.

New!! Carpool: Interested in participating in carpool? We have a few folks signed up, but they couldn't be spread much further! Others interested in participating should let us know at check-in. We have interest from west Carmel, Fishers, and Richmond.

Yuletide Celebration - No dates available yet but other information is provided below

This is a holiday event that is fun for the whole family! Each year, New World provides volunteers (18) at seven of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra's Yuletide Celebration in exchange for one free venue rental (just the venue, other fees apply!) at Hilbert Circle Theatre during the season. The Yuletide Celebration takes place from December 4 to December 23 at Hilbert Circle Theatre. Later in November I will be given seven dates for us to volunteer - so what does that involve?

Our volunteers work tables that serve cookies, wassail, and milk. Everything is provided for us. We arrive early to stuff cookies into individual bags and get the tables set up. We sell these treats before the concert begins and during intermission. We also do some clean-up at the end of intermission and count the money at each station. Volunteers are allowed to go into the theatre to watch the performance if there are seats available. It's a great way to celebrate the holidays with family and to give back to an organization that supports us throughout the year.

I do not have our exact dates, times, and instructions yet. Please just keep this in mind when you're planning your holidays!

In addition to the regular volunteers mentioned above, each performance also requires an experienced "crew chief" to make table assignments, make sure that money is handed out/collected, ensure that tables always have change and cookies, and make sure clean-up is done on all floors. Those who have worked this event in past years are certainly eligible.

Note about ages: Typically, the ISO requests that all volunteers are at least 12 years old. However, we have an excellent reputation for our work at this event and with parent supervision there have been exceptions made to the age requirement. Remember, though, that the pace is fast at times and a volunteer's attention should be focused on the table and sales, so please be mindful of this when volunteering. Only those 14 and older may handle money.

Speak of the Week - My apologies for neglecting this recently. There are a couple of ways to participate in activities on Facebook or through our gmail account:
Speak.of.the.Week@gmail.com.

New!! Regular Speak of the Week - cookies courtesy of Angelique Darring and Shummie's Yummies were given to Luke Turgeon for winning Speak of the Week last week! Thanks to Angelique for her generosity! Luke - be sure to share with us just how good those cookies are! Speak of the Week is being suspended until after the "Are You Unusual" campaign has concluded on November 10. See below:

Are you unusual? Tell us what makes you unique and/or unusual. If everyone in your orchestra tells us one thing about themselves, then your orchestra could win candy. Lots and LOTS of candy. The deadline is November 10 - responses may be included in a pre-concert slideshow on November 15. We just want our audience to get to know you all a bit more. Do you have a part-time job? Do you have an interesting hobby or talent? Do you have an unusual story about how you began playing your instrument? Thanks to Emily Walters for getting us started!

Sponsorship Update: We have surpassed the sponsorship dollar amount for the season!! Congratulations! We hope to continue the program throughout the season, however, to increase participation - only 37% of members participated in the program this year. Invite a potential sponsor to the concert on November 15!
