

Dear INASTA Members:

Please see note from Syndy Ortwein and link to the Indiana All-State Orchestra information below. An additional link should be available shortly on the INASTA website at inasta.org. Please also pass this information along to any band directors who have excellent wind, brass, and percussion students interested in auditioning.

Sincerely,
Elisabeth Ohly-Davis
INASTA President

Dear Colleagues:

INDIANA All State Orchestra Audition material is available for your students immediately!!

Please encourage your instrumental students to consider participating in in the 2010 All State Orchestra. All information can be found at www.ortstrings.com. Application, instructions, excerpts, and parts are all available. As this is getting out later than I had hoped, I've included all pages so students may practice immediately.

Audition applications and recordings must be submitted and postmarked by midnight Friday, October 2nd, 2009.

If you have any questions, please contact Syndy Ortwein at syndyortwein@gmail.com
My gmail account is exclusively for All State information.

Thanks again for your patience, and for encouraging your instrumental students to participate in the 2010 INASTA Indiana All State Orchestra.

Sincerely,

Syndy Ortwein
Indiana All State Orchestra Coordinator
