

Dear <friend's name>,

As you probably know, my <son/daughter> is a member of the New World Youth <Symphony/Philharmonic/Concert> Orchestra. New World gives youth a great opportunity to rehearse and perform both traditional and contemporary orchestral masterworks, and attracts some of the most talented young musicians in central Indiana. Concerts are held 3 times per year at some of the state's most prestigious concert venues, including Hilbert Circle Theater.

If you have not already been to a New World concert, you are in for a surprise. These young musicians are passionate about music and work very hard rehearsing. The results are concerts where you sometimes wonder if these are really kids or adult performers! I invite you to experience the premiere concert of this new season, which is scheduled on Sunday, November 15, 2009, 5:00 p.m. at Hilbert Circle Theater, downtown Indy.

Of course, it takes a lot more than concert ticket sales to make an orchestra successful, and New World Youth Orchestras is no exception. Even though we have quite a good network of volunteers, the cost of concert venues, rehearsal venues, and many other hidden costs must be covered in order to make New World a great experience for all. We would really appreciate any amount of donation, however large or small, to help out this exceptional organization. You can drop a check in the mail, payable to New World Youth Orchestras, Symphony Centre, Suite 950, 32 E. Washington St., Indianapolis, IN 46204.

Thank you very much in advance for your tax deductible contribution, and I hope to see you soon at an upcoming concert!

Sincerely,
